THE MAURY TESTIMONIAL.-Last evening the magnificent testimonial of a silver present to the late Mayor Maury was made. There was assembled many of the distinguished men and beautiful ladies of Washington. The set consisted of two large silver pitchers, and twelve silver goblets, most gorgeously elaborated in the workmanship. They ost $1.000; and, regarding their fineness, are well worth the expense. On them is inscribed the words

"To John W. Maury, late Mayor of Washington in testimony of his public and private worth, 1854. according to nationality, is as follows : At the time selected for the presentation, Col. Peter Force appeared on the part of the presentors, and read a well-formed speech, showing by deliber-ate analysis the benefits to the city of Mr. Maury's administration, and the grounds for the compliment paid him. The speech touched upon the necessity of having always a just Chief Magistrate for the city, and regarded Mr. Maury as one who came up to the Ex Mayor Maury responded, expressing his thanks for the regard exhibited to him as a late servant of the people. He had tried to do his duty, and this testimonial, endorsing his efforts, was dearer to him than all the honors and profits of office. He came here a boy, thirty years ago, when the place was quite a village, but now he was proud to behold it the magnificent Metropolis of the Union. The sentiments of both the speakers met with applause and

The goblets were filled, and the large and respect able company partook slightly of their contents, and at early hour the company separated, well pleased with the scenes of the evening. We cannot omit to mention that the beautiful ladies present added much to the brilliancy of the occasion. The rich testimonial came from the elegant jewelry store of Messrs. Galt & Bro., and the presentation took place at Mr. Maury's residence, on C street.

A New Asteroid.-The following letter has been received by the American National Institute, ex plaining the discovery of a new asteroid:

NATIONAL OBSERVATORY, Washington, October 23, 1845. SIR: I have the honor to state, for the information of the National Institute, that a new asteroid was discovered here by Mr. James Ferguson, Assistant Astronomer, at 11 p. m., 2d September, 1854. He was observing Egeria at the time, and found that, the thirteeenth, and this, the thirty-first, in the

I have delayed this communication waiting to as certain whether the planet might not have been discovered by observers in other parts of the world: and it appearing that it had not, the priority of the discovery, therefore, belongs to the National Observatory; and this new star is added to the family of asteroids as the first representative of America among them, and a memorial of her zeal in the cause of astronomy. As a testimony of the high appreciation in which the talents and the industry of Mr. Ferguson are held the honor of naming the planet was left to him. Fol lowing the rule adopted by astronomers with regard to the asteroids, he has selected the graceful name of Euphrosyne. Its approximate ephemeris with the last observations are herewith inclosed. I have the honor to be, respectfully, &c. M. F. MAURY, Lt. U. S. Navy. Jos. C. G. Kennedy, Cor. Secretary of the American National Institute, Washington.

A GREAT MUSICAL TREAT may be expected next Sunday, November 5th, at Trinity (Catholic) Church Georgetown, D. C. The amateurs of music will have an opportunity of hearing the magnificent organ, (24 full stops,) which, for the last two month, for re-adjustment. Haydn's Grand Mass, No. 3, D, will be performed. The choir has lately been reinforced by s veral new voices. To assure the lovers of music that the full power and sweetness of this organ, (considered by many the best in the District,) will, on this occasion be brought forth, we need only mention that Prof. Daueas, of Georgetown College, will preside at it. Rev. B. A. Maguire. President of the College, will preach at the High

Mass, 101/2 o'clock a. m. At 4 o'clock p. m., there will be Grand Vespers.

J. G. ABLOT, Esq.-We see that the Poard of Trustees of Public Schools have re-appointed J. G. Abbot, Esq., as Secretary of the Board. He was a most useful member of the late board. It will be remembered that this gentleman, together with the greater part of the Trustees, under whom our school system has reached its present state of advancement. was left out by our Councils at the late election. It certainly argues more liberality than was expected on the part of the present Board, to appoint a gentleman for this responsible position who pessesses the public confidence in connection with the subject of popular education.

BLACK TEA .- A few years back, black tea was scarcely used, except by persons in delicate health; but since the introduction of that very delicious tea-(such as is sold by King, at the corner of I and Futeenth streets,) there are now sold ten boxes to one This particular kind can only be had of him, as he usually buys up all of the mark. The price he sells at, fifty cents a pound, puts it within the reach of

THE NEXT CONGRESS .- The National Intelligen cer says: "The arrival in this city of several members of the National Legislature reminds us that the second session of the Thirty-third Congress is near at hand. Four weeks from next Monday is the time of meeting. May we not hope that the time spent at home, in the exercise of the gentie amenities as well as the stern realities of life, may have disposed them to meet as brothers, tolerant of each other's opinions and prejudices, and resolved to unite their efforts for the common good of the country?"

PENNIES FOR THE MONUMENT .- The scholars of the primary public school near the Arsenal, conducted by Miss Anna Adams, contribute one cent month each towards the funds of the National Wash ington Monument Society. There being sixty six pupils, their annual contributions amounts to $7 92. If all other schools would follow this example, the monument could be erected by the children of the POLICE REPORT FOR OCTOBER -Police officers Hurley, Pearce, Barnaclo, Boss, Handy, Wollard, Burr, Martin, Allen, Wise, Simonds, Adams, Willett, Stoddard and Mitchel, have made returns to J. Davis, Esq., chief of police, for the month of October, of judgments and costs obtained amounting to $958.82. Those collected and paid in were $689.92. Officer Busher being appointed to attend at the depot, has consequently no returns to make.

THE WASHINGTON HIGHLANDERS .- The fourth day of December has been fixed on for the first parade of this new company, commanded by Captain John Reese. On the evening of that day, a grand ball is to take place, or we should say a "Highland Fling," when the bonnie lassies will appear in all their plaid and loveliness, and the Highlanders be seen in all their Scottish gallantry.

A WASHINGTONIAN ELECTED .- John E. Norris. (Democrat,) formerly of this city, has been elected Commonwealth's Attorney for the county of Berkeley, Virginia, by a majority of ninety-three over Norman Miller, (Whig,) to supply the vacancy oc-casioned by the death of Edmund P. Hunter, Esq.

CANAL MEETING .- The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company kad a meeting, yesterday, in this city, of its stockholders, the attendance being very limited. A number of shares were, however, repre sented by proxies, and the proceedings such as to sustain the conducting of the work most efficiently.

TRAIN INTERRUPTED .- Yesterday, some four miles from the Relay House, a coal train interrupted the Washington passenger train, but under the careful direction of the conductor, nothing unpleasant occurred, except a short delay.

OLD JACK IN AGAIN .- Watch House .- The old jack tar was one of the lodgers at the Watch House last night. He said he had lost his main-arm and sheet in a gale, but promised to steer clear of dangerous latitudes hereafter-that is, that he would never come back again under the command of Capt. Birch, although he was well pleased with the commander. Several others were in for lodgings.

THE YEAR PAST .- The New Orleans Christian In Boston, on the 1st instant, by the Right Fev. Bishop Southgate, EZRA WILLIAMS, of this city, to Miss SARAH TOWNSEND, of Medfield, Mass Advocate tells too truly some prominent facts which interest the people of Wash ngton, as well as elsewhere. That paper says: "We sing of mercy and judgment. The year pas will be signal in history for its disasters. Drought. in the best agricultural districts, cutting off millions of produce. Fires in cities and forest; mounta as in a blaze. Cholera invading from the sea-coast to the interior. Disasters by ranroads, and greater ones by rivers and by sea. Sailing vessels lost; steamers huge and staunch, foun ering mid-ocean, or in tempting view of shore; or burning in hopeless distance of rescue. Thousands of lives lost; mouning and waiting fill the land. Such events show us that God does not need wars, foes of steel and iron, serried ranks of invading hosts and armed fleets, like those that distress the other hemisphere, in order to reduce the proud to humility, or make His sovereignty

Immigration -An exchange says the number of immigrants who arrived at the port of New York for the week ending November 1st, is 11,943, which exceeds the arrivals for any week since that ending July 5th, when they numbered 13,032; and making a total immigration for the year of 273,551, against 235,-636 for the same period in 1853—an increase of 37,815.
